Answer each question separately

1. Tell me something about yourself, something that will make you come alive as a person. You get to decide what you reveal and at what length.
2. Why do you want to take this course? Give me as much detail as possible. How did you learn about it? If someone recommended it, who and why did he/she do so? If any part of the syllabus spoke to you strongly, which part and why?
3. What specific – list them – learning outcomes would you like to take away from this course? An example of such an outcome is "I would like to learn how to stop being bothered by what I think others are thinking about me."
4. What hesitations do you have? Are you nervous or concerned about anything you read in the syllabus or heard from others?
5. How will other persons who take the course benefit from having you in it?
6. What really, really, really and truly matters to you? Why?
7. This course requires an enormous commitment of time as well as emotional and psychic energy. If your participation slacks off, you will be doing a disservice to yourself as well as other members of class. Are you fully prepared to take responsibility to make this class a resounding success for yourself as well as for others?

Suggested length: One page is too short and 20 pages are too long for all questions combined.
